Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Providing leadership in meeting the objectives and goals of the Company Mesiniaga abides by ethical conduct and practices in doing our business and dealings with all stakeholders as much as we pledge to comply with all regulatory requirements. An integral part of our Employee e-Handbook is the Mesiniaga Business Conduct Guidelines which delineates the expected ethical behaviour of our employees. The Guidelines encompass personal conduct, fairness in business, relationship with other organisations, use and dissemination of proprietary and confidential information, and fraud prevention. Apart from that, it is also our undertaking to support the utilisation of license software and the implementation of good software asset management practices. Our upgraded ISO 9001:2015 accreditation exemplifies our commitment to ethical and best practices. To achieve our Company's stated vision and mission, we are committed to continuing our efforts to be the "Malaysian IT Partner of Choice" by helping our customers succeed. We pledge to strive for the highest level of good governance in the Company and its Group and meet and exceed the expectations of all our stakeholders, particularly our shareholders. The Board of Directors ("the Board") firmly believes that adopting and operating by the highest standards of corporate governance is vital for sustainable performance and economic value creation for all our stakeholders. The values adopted by the Company are respect, integrity, commitment, innovation and teamwork.

Intended Outcome

There is demarcation of responsibilities between the board, board committees and management.

There is clarity in the authority of the board, its committees and individual directors.

Practice 2.1

The board has a board charter which is periodically reviewed and published on the company's website. The board charter clearly identifies–

- the respective roles and responsibilities of the board, board committees, individual directors and management; and
- issues and decisions reserved for the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is guided by its Board Charter, which sets out the Board's strategic intent, roles and responsibilities in discharging its fiduciary and leadership functions. The Board Charter, which establishes precise procedures, roles, and responsibilities of the Company's Board, is published on the Company's website www.mesiniaga.com.my. The Board Charter was last reviewed on 20 November 2020. The revision was to ensure it is in line with the Companies Act 2016, Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance and Main Market Listing Requirements.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Mesiniaga abides by strict ethical conduct and practices in doing our business and in our dealings with all stakeholders and regulatory requirements. An integral part of our Employee e-Handbook is the Mesiniaga Business Conduct Guidelines (BCG) which defines the expected ethical behaviour of our employees. The Guidelines encompass personal conduct, fairness in business, relationship with other organisations, use and dissemination of proprietary and confidential information and fraud prevention. Apart from that, it is also our undertaking to support the utilisation of licensed software and the implementation of good software asset management practices. Our upgraded ISO 9001:2015 accreditation exemplifies our commitment to ethical and best practices. On 8 October 2019, Mesiniaga issued Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy, Whistleblowing Policy and Vendor Code of Conduct to complement the BCG in enhancing the Group's culture of having good ethics and fair dealings. In this respect, it has been the responsibility of the Group to uphold the high reputation of the Group and the responsibility of each employee to behave in the prescribed manner, as required by the BCG and the policies described above. The policies and procedures as outlined in the BCG and the said policies are based on the Code on Corporate Governance principles and the relevant legal provisions under the MACC Act 2009 and the recently gazetted Section 17A of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (Amendment) Act 2018. The main objective of the BCG and the said policies are to encourage and enable employees to whistle-blow and raise serious concerns about illegal activities, such as corruption and other wrongdoings that may occur within the organisation. This BCG and the said policies are available in the Employee e-Handbook for the reference of all employees in the Group's effort to continue promoting accountability, transparency and ethical practices.

	Even though details on money laundering and insider trading are excluded from BCG, the general provision on the matters has covered the Anti-Money Laundering, Anti-Terrorism Financing and Proceeds of Unlawful Activities Act 2001 (AMLA) and Capital Markets and Services Act 2007 (CMSA) are applicable to the Company.

Intended Outcome

The company addresses sustainability risks and opportunities in an integrated and strategic manner to support its long-term strategy and success.

Practice 4.4

Performance evaluations of the board and senior management include a review of the performance of the board and senior management in addressing the company's material sustainability risks and opportunities.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	Performance evaluations of the board and senior management are undertaken annually. However, currently, the performance evaluations do not specifically include sustainability risks and opportunities.
		Performance evaluation of the board and senior management in addressing the company's material sustainability risks and opportunities is currently being developed.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.
Timeframe	:	Choose an item.

Intended Outcome

The company addresses sustainability risks and opportunities in an integrated and strategic manner to support its long-term strategy and success.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The Chairman of the Sustainability Committee is the designated person providing focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the Company.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Nomination and Remuneration Committee conducts an annual review of the composition of the Board in terms of appropriate size, required mix of skills, experience and core competencies and adequacy of balance between Executive Director, Non-Executive Directors and Independent Non-Executive Directors.
Explanation for departure	:

Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	There is a shortage of 1 person to bring the composition of the independent directors to form half of the Board.
		The three (3) Independent Directors, who represent 43% of the Board, demonstrate independence of judgment and ensure Board decisions are made objectively in the Company's best interests.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	Please explain the measure(s) the company has taken or intend to take to adopt the practice.
Timeframe	:	Others	Please specify number of years.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board recognises MCCG 2021's practice on the tenure of an Independent Director that should not exceed a cumulative term of nine (9) years. Members' approval is being sought to retain an independent director reaching a cumulative term of nine (9) years at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board considers that objectivity and integrity and the relevant skills, knowledge, experience, mindset, and ability, which will assist the Board in strengthening its essential functions, are the prerequisites for the appointment of new Directors to the Board. The Board also recognises the need to enhance Board diversity, as it is essential to the efficient functioning of the Board and indicates good governance practices. The Board has attained diversification in terms of experience, skills, expertise, competencies, ethnicity and age to enable the Company to maximise its business and governance performance.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Though the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has been tasked to review and make recommendations for the board's membership, the Board does not solely rely on recommendations received from the committee. The Board is open to considering other independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.7

The board should ensure shareholders have the information they require to make an informed decision on the appointment and reappointment of a director. This includes details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the board and to act in the best interests of the listed company as a whole. The board should also provide a statement as to whether it supports the appointment or reappointment of the candidate and the reasons why.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Sufficient information on Directors seeking re-appointment is incorporated in the Statement Accompanying the Notice of the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

Practice 5.10

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company has established a gender diversity policy for the Board and workforce, including senior management.  The gender diversity policy is available at https://mesiniaga.com.my/corporate-governance/
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	: An evaluation to determine the board's effectiveness, its committees and each director is now being conducted annually.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company has adopted a policy and procedure to determine directors' remuneration and its CEO. The policy and practice on the remuneration of other members of Senior Management are determined by the CEO.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NRC oversees the implementation of the policy and procedure on remuneration, including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of the Board in general, particularly the remuneration of the Executive Director. Its Terms of Reference are as stated in the annual report and published on the Company's website.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to assess whether the remuneration of directors and senior management is commensurate with their individual performance, taking into consideration the company's performance.

Practice 8.2

The board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration component including salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments in bands of RM50,000.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	In this competitive industry, the Board is of the opinion that the disclosure of the Senior Management remuneration would not be in the best interest of the Group due to confidentiality and retention concerns. As the recruitment and retention of Senior Management is challenging and remuneration remains an important consideration in this regard.
		The Board ensures that the remuneration of Senior Management is commensurate with the performance of the Company, with due consideration to attracting, retaining and motivating Senior Management to lead and run the Company successfully.
